

REVIEW QUESTIONS

Existence of God (3)

Lesson 11

11/29/20

Take some time to think through the things we talked about in our last lesson and review your notes. Then briefly answer the review questions below.

1. What is the moral argument for the existence of God?
2. Why is the moral argument sometimes referred to as the argument from evil?
3. How can you help a moral relativist see that there are objective moral values and duties?
4. What is consciousness?
5. What is it about consciousness that makes it highly improbable to have arisen merely from matter and energy?
6. Why is God the most probable explanation for the existence of consciousness?
7. State briefly in your own words C. S. Lewis' "Argument from Joy."
8. How does our ability to appreciate and create beauty point to God's existence?
9. How would you respond to someone who asks if God is real, and if he wants us to believe in him, why is he so hidden?
10. What was the most helpful thing you learned in this lesson, or was perhaps particularly new or interesting to you?
