The Nature of God

Lesson 12

12/6/20

Take some time to think through the things we talked about in our last lesson and review your notes. Then briefly answer the review questions below.

1. Why is it important for the Christian apologist to have a clear understanding of the nature of God?
2. What would you say to someone who suggested that it isn't proper to think of defending God?
3. What would you say to someone who argued that since God is so far beyond us it is impossible for us to know about him?
4. What are two sources of knowledge about God?
5. What do we mean when we say that God is a necessary being?
6. What is the aseity of God?
7. What do we mean when we speak of the immateriality of God?
8. What is the problem with the argument against God that he constitutes an unnecessarily complex answer to the question of how the cosmos came into being?
9. When Christian thinkers speak of the infinitude of God, what do they mean?
10. What was the most helpful thing you learned in this lesson, or was perhaps particularly new or interesting to you?
