

REVIEW QUESTIONS

The Existence of God (1)

Lesson 9

11/15/20

Take some time to think through the things we talked about in our last lesson and review your notes. Then briefly answer the review questions below.

1. Why is it possible to know about God even if one is not familiar with any of the arguments for the existence of God?
2. Why is it helpful to be familiar with some arguments for the existence of God?
3. Who first articulated the Ontological Argument for the existence of God?
4. Try to express simply in your own words how the ontological argument seeks to support the idea of God's existence?
5. Try to express simply how the Cosmological Arguments seek to support the idea of God's existence.
6. Give at least one support from a philosophical argument that the universe began to exist.
7. Give at least one support from science that the universe had a beginning.
8. What are some things we can deduce about the First Cause of the universe?
9. What was the most helpful thing you learned in this lesson, or was perhaps particularly new or interesting to you?
